

West Wing Questions

- 1) What are the three issues discussed in this episode?
- 2) What are the two sides to each issue? Explain the arguments.
- 3) How does the President reach his decisions? What does he consider?
- 4) What is the place of public opinion in the decisions of a president?
- 5) Is there anything you believe that the President should have considered that he did not?
- 6) Do you agree with the decisions made by the President? Why or Why not?

West Wing Questions

- 1) What are the three issues discussed in this episode?
- 2) What are the two sides to each issue? Explain the arguments.
- 3) How does the President reach his decisions? What does he consider?
- 4) What is the place of public opinion in the decisions of a president?
- 5) Is there anything you believe that the President should have considered that he did not?
- 6) Do you agree with the decisions made by the President? Why or Why not?

West Wing Questions

- 1) What are the three issues discussed in this episode?
- 2) What are the two sides to each issue? Explain the arguments.
- 3) How does the President reach his decisions? What does he consider?
- 4) What is the place of public opinion in the decisions of a president?
- 5) Is there anything you believe that the President should have considered that he did not?
- 6) Do you agree with the decisions made by the President? Why or Why not?

West Wing Questions

- 1) What are the three issues discussed in this episode?
- 2) What are the two sides to each issue? Explain the arguments.
- 3) How does the President reach his decisions? What does he consider?
- 4) What is the place of public opinion in the decisions of a president?
- 5) Is there anything you believe that the President should have considered that he did not?
- 6) Do you agree with the decisions made by the President? Why or Why not?